Description

Flame Mahogany Dressing Mirror - Victorian - c1870 A lovely example of a dome topped Victorian Dressing Mirror. This mid-sized piece is in great order throughout and benefits from original bronze hinge fittings which are all fully functioning. Pleasingly styled riser supports display floral and scroll carved detailing and offer robust siting for the swing mirror. The dome shaped mahogany frame displays the fine flaming grain wonderfully and supports an original mirror plate with attractive and desirable light foxing to the mirror plate. The fine flame veneer plinth body sits over superb scroll carved feet. Overall a nicely proportioned and attractive mirror in very good antique order which will make a fine addition to any location.
