Description

* FREE DELIVERY TO MOST OF THE U.K. * Victorian Wardrobe - Superb Colour - c1880 A classic and pleasing example of a Victorian tall single wardrobe. Of good proportions and presented in super antique condition the piece is ready to use and will look stunning in any location. A continuous plinth provides a stable base for the piece, with the structure rising with good colour to terminate in an attractive crown moulding. A single twin field panel door, with original catch, opens to reveal a usefully appointed clean interior. With a lower full width shelves and an adjustable slide the piece offers good practicality. The upper is fitted with a hanging rail. The finish throughout the cabinet is the very desirable Victorian pine worn patina which delivers terrific warmth and feeling of heritage. Overall this cabinet is a desirable and practical item of antique furniture with useful storage capacity presented in good condition. Buyers please note that we have full restoration workshops and would be pleased to fit a mirror into the inside of the wardrobe door if required.
