Description

 FREE DELIVERY TO MOST OF THE U.K.  William IV Period Dining Chairs - Reeded Leg - c1835 A set of four English reeded leg dining chairs presented in pleasing condition and benefiting from attractive form and proportion. With classic William IV styling this mahogany set offers 'drop-in' seat convenience and comfort. The seats of the set are presently covered with a fawn velour textile which is in serviceable condition. The nature of the seat design means that it would be very simple to re-cover the chairs if desired. A wide top rail offers strength and comfort. The centre back rail provides great interest with desirable tulip & feather detail. The front rail has moulded detail and leads through the block corner into the lovely reeded legs with triple turning and taper foot. With a 45cm (17.7") seat height these chairs would make an ideal set for regular use. They are robust and strong of frame throughout. An opportunity to enjoy a good set of English William IV period chairs which will serve and perform excellently whilst looking gorgeous.
