Description

Japy Freres Sevres Porcelain and Gilt Metal Clock Set ~ French - Circa 1890 ~ ~ Excellent condition ~ A large and stunning Japy Freres clock set of gilt metal mounted with the most exquisitely painted porcelain, with pompadour blue ground in the manner of Sevres. The two urns are painted with scenes of ladies of leisure. One is playing a harp next to a classical ruin and the other is painting. The dial is decorated with a cherub and a bow and quiver of arrows and is also signed by the Paris retailer Henry Marc. The reverse of the dial is signed by the artist and numbered with the wholesalers number (HP and Co). Above the dial a further porcelain panel shows a young lady dancing with a tambourine in front of a ruin. The other panels are very delicately painted with floral swags and wild birds. The case itself is very well modelled and is of Louis XV waisted shape with two winged water carriers to the side of the case. The case makers mark Brunfaut is on the rear of the case. The set is complete with its original suite of gesso bases which are covered with the original blue velvet. The Japy Freres movement is of this makers usual high quality. It runs for 8 days an...
