Description

Oriental Bamboo Side Table - Victorian - c1890 This attractive bamboo Victorian period table is a charming example presented in good condition. The table has perfect proportions for use as a lamp stand, side table, bedside or simply as a feature piece in a stand-alone situation. A versatile item of furniture with a square top with desirable original lacquer finish detailed with oriental theme and displaying deep vibrant hues. An outer trim of bamboo completes the picture. The table is solid in use, robust and free of wobble so often associated with this type of design. The table benefits from a lower double H-stretcher which can be used as an under-tier to further add to the adaptability of this piece. Overall this item of furniture offers great scope and is pleasing in size.
