Description

Edwardian Writing Bureau - Mahogany - c1910 An Edwardian bureau of useful proportions with splendid fitted interior presented in excellent condition. Rising from original brass castors, through tapered square section legs with feature stretcher, into the main body featuring fine inlays and stringing across the piece. The upper presents a fall front over a full width desk drawer. An original leather skiver which is both embossed and gilded provides a pleasing work area. The 73cm (28.7") working height of the desk area makes the piece perfect for regular use. Within the quality fitted interior there are a pair of drawers, cubbies and letter slots and a central main space with cabinet door. Above the main section resides a pair of further drawers and a top section with classic rear up-stand. Overall a very desirable example in good order.
