Description

A Pair of 18th Century Carved Giltwood Pricket Sticks, each with a circular top and gadroon carved rim, centred y an iron candle spike. The bodies of the sticks broadly tapering triangular shape, with knopped and scrolled shaping, enhances with reserve panels with lattice and stipple decoration, finished with leaf carving. The sticks raised up on scroll toe feet. A very nice worn gilt finish, but in very good condition. These original pricket sticks are much copied and reproduced, but the original 18th C ones, as these, have a much better colour and feel about them, and can happily sit on traditional oak or in a contemporary interior.
