Description

Pair of silver "Coronation" decanter labels; made by one of the most outstanding 20th century silversmiths, these magnificent Crown & Coronet labels are hugely collectable and of the highest quality. They were made in the Coronation year of Queen Elizabeth II, and commissioned by a leading London wine merchant as a gift to favoured customers. These particular labels are for Sherry and Port; these usually come to market as single items, so a pair is quite something. Difficult to find better. London. 1953. Leslie Durbin. Length of each 6.5cm.
