Description

Antique Ebonised Ladies Writing Desk and Original Matching Chair by the Renowned Furniture Makers Marsh & Jones (late Kendal & Co) Medieval Cabinet Makers of Leeds. (Please see Biography below). The desk dating to around 1860 has a moulded edge to the top above a single drawer to the centre and with stylised supports to each corner of the kneehole. It has three further drawers to each pedestal above a turned spindle frame with turned bobbin finial. It stands on ring turned legs on castors. The desk has panelled sides joined by a single stretcher and all of the drawers are mahogany lined with original gilt brass handles. The matching chair has reeded side supports and with a turned spindle top rail above its original upholstered back rest and stuff over seat with shaped frieze below with turned spindle supports and standing on ring turned legs joined by squared stretchers. The desk measures: 29" high x knee height 23.5" x 21" deep x 42" wide. The chair measures: 33" high x seat height 16.5" x 18" deep x 17" wide. It has its 'partial' paper label with design number. Marsh Jones & Cribb were important furniture makers in Leeds in a similar league to Gillows of Lan...
