Price

SoldItem Reference: SA180847*Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

A Regimental Woolwork Picture made by a soldier from the XIII Hussars, circa 1902. The central insigne with the motto 'Viret in aeternum' within a foliate scroll worked with the battle honours of the Regiment including Waterloo, The Peninsula War, The Crimea and South Africa. In it's original glazed oak frame with a silver slip. There is a little fading to the woolwork but the colours remain very bright. 50x59cm not including frame.
