

Sold

Date of manufacture:

A Regimental Woolwork Picture for the Middlesex Regiment, Duke of Cambridge's Own, 3rd Battalion, formerly the The Royal Elthorne or 5th Middlesex Light Infantry Militia. The green background worked with blocks of grey and black. The central regimental insignia flanked by metal tipped, tassel hung flags and flanked by a list of battle honours, including India, Peninsula War, Crimea, New Zealand and South Africa. Initialed in the bottom right corner 'A.P.'? In it's original glazed ebonised frame with a gilt slip (the frame un-restored). The woolwork has some overall but even fading. 59x69cm.

International Tel: +44 7867 305451 or +44 1249 447478