Description

Good 19th Century Ironstone Vase and Cover, the lid with a gilt dog of Phoo, and pierced holes. The vase of octagonal tapering shape, with a high collar, decorated in gilt anthemions against a rust coloured background. The shoulders with lapets in blue and gilt with rose heads and buds. The main body decorated with a fanciful scene of Chinese men and women in a garden amongst trees, flowers, parrots and storks/flamingoes. The vase mounted with a pair of dragon head gilt handles. The lid is badly damaged, but this would make a great lamp or centre piece. Date c 1850 Height 19" Diameter 12"
