Description

Bow Front Corner Cabinet - With Lower Drawer - c1880 This English Victorian bow fronted corner cabinet is presented in very good antique condition with lovely flame mahogany veneer and inlaid detailing. Twin bow doors, with raised panel arch form, open to reveal a clean interior with triple shelves. Below the doors there are twin folly drawer fronts flanking a central drawer, each with attractive inlaid edge detail. Above the doors there is further pleasing veneer work with quartered sections and inlay. The whole cabinet has appealing colour and is solid in construction and condition. Overall a quality Victorian cabinet of nice proportions offering good opportunity for both display and storage. It is complete with key and working lock.
