Description

Quality Inlaid Wardrobe - Edwardian - c1900 This excellent Edwardian Triple Wardrobe is in fine order and benefits from quality construction with oak and mahogany throughout. Rising from pleasing splayed bracket feet the lower section presents a useful pair of deep drawers. They have original pulls and in keeping with the rest of the wardrobe have quality oak linings and fine inlay. The main hanging space is revealed when the left hand and centre doors open - it is fitted with a centre rail. The right hand mirror door opens to reveal a full rack of oak linen press slides. The pair of mirror doors both present original glass in excellent order and benefit from quality bevelled edge. To the top there is an attractive wide crown moulding with additional fine inlay feature work to the facing edge. This stylish and very practical piece is in excellent solid order. The quality of the construction of the piece is clear to see. Both internally & externally the wardrobe is clean and very well presented. Please do not hesitate to contact if you require further information - we are here to help. 60cm (23.6") Deep max at crown moulding, 195cm (76.8") Wide max at crown mou...
