Description

English Georgian Dressing Mirror - Triple Drawer - c1800 A handsome example of a Georgian English Dressing Mirror - c1800 Splayed bracket feet support the moulded lower section within which a pair of curve fronted trinket drawers, with mahogany linings and original pulls, flank a larger central drawer. The original mirror plate is in fine order with desirable light pitting and foxing. The mirror surround offers great interest with giltwood carved detailing to the perimeter. Mahogany veneer displays excellently throughout the piece with a pleasing flame effect to the upper surface. Overall a really pretty mirror in good order with useful drawer space and a desirable style. Original pull handles and great condition add to the appeal of this classically designed piece. Perfect for daily use or simply as a feature item.
