Description

A Stunning Burr Walnut Victorian Period coffee table (adapted). With a rectangular bowed end top veneered in beautifully figured burr walnut and with an amboyna veneered border. With gadrooned carved detail to the edge, above a concealed frieze drawer. Raised on four carved and turned reeded supports united by a beautiful carved and reeded stretcher terminating in swept carved feet circa 1860-1870. Dimensions: 20.5" high x 45" wide x 24" deep. Condition: This table has been reduced in height and adapted from larger Victorian table to make a coffee table, beautifully re-polished using traditional methods in our workshops. This is one of a near matching pair of coffee tables we have in stock, the other one has no frieze drawer.
