Description

Coffee Table - Cabriole Legs - c1920 This French round painted table offers useful proportions and good condition. An aesthetically pleasing cabriole leg structure with carved serpentine skirt supports the circular upper. The top benefits from a perimeter lip and moulded edge detail. The style is hugely appealing and the table will act well as a coffee or side table, lamp or display piece. The finish is in a classic period French colour under a hand waxed outer. Overall this piece of furniture is in very good antique condition. The table is well constructed and solid. An interesting piece which will make superb feature.
