Description

Portrait of a young girl. Late 18th/early 19th century. A bold confident work painted in a simple, classic style, without the distractions of background scenery. The work is attributed but a close look reveals the drawing and craftsmanship of a good hand who has captured the psychological quizzical repose of the sitter. The later high quality frame just adds to the overall look of the picture. Delivery and shipping to anywhere in the world is always a pleasure so please do enquire? best wishes chris
