

SA183366

An Antique Early Victorian Star and Panel Cut Glass Decanter circa 1845

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA183366

Date of manufacture: 1800

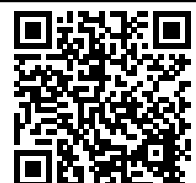

Description

A very nice quality, double lipped, early Victorian decanter circa 1845, the tall concave panelled body of octagonal form with star cut decoration at the panel intersections, with polished pontil and star cut base, the panelled and star cut stopper is original to the decanter and is a good fit, 39cm (15") high including stopper.

Seller Details

Hand of Glory

Hand of Glory Antiques 34 Market Place Chippenham Wiltshire
SN15 3HP United Kingdom

Tel: 07867 305451 or 01249 447478

International Tel: +44 7867 305451 or +44 1249 447478