Description

A really unusual egg cruet dating to around 1910/1920 made from English silverplate. The set came to us completely black and has been polished and re-plated where necessary by our silversmiths. The egg cups are most unusual with the egg spoons having a complimentary looped terminals. The base is created from three leaf shaped panels, again supported by loop type feet. Each of the egg cups sits on it's own individual pin, keeping it in place. Unmarked apart from a style of design number, it remains in excellent condition ready for use. 8 1/4" tall.
