Description

A walnut George I Style double domed breakfront bookcase. The top section having a double domed and block moulded cornice above the four glazed doors, each door having cross grain walnut glazing bars. The adjustable shelved interior is painted in a Georgian green. The lower section of breakfront outline having four walnut veneered doors supported on walnut shaped ogee bracket feet circa 1900-1910. Dimensions: 91.5" high x 84" wide x 16" deep. Condition: This bookcase is in beautiful original condition. Cleaned and waxed. It is made completely as the original one would have been, all the glazed doors have walnut veneered onto oak as an original period one would have been. The bottom doors are veneered on both inside and out as a sign of the quality of this bookcase. There is some past extinct woodworm, which is no longer present.
