Description

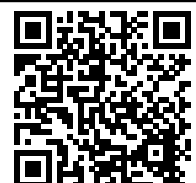

In absolutely superb condition, and very rare, a serpentine fronted Georgian chest on chest, with beautifully figured mahogany, crossbanded in rosewood, fluted corners and standing on bracket feet. All the drawers are oak lined and the chest has just been subject to a sympathetic restoration and a light repolishing. There is evidence that the top and bottom sections are not contemporary, the opinion being that the base chest was made originally in 1770 and the top chest was added 30 or 40 years later, probably by the same maker. In the event the cabinet maker has created a spectacular piece of furniture that is very usable and of a perfect size. Size: Width - 37.5" (95cms) Depth - 20.5" (52cms) Height - 57.5" (146cms)
