Description

A fabulous quality large desk-top calendar made from Mahogany with a most unusual domed top. Dating to the late Victorian era, around 1900, the calendar is operated by turning the keys each side to alter the day date and month. The underside reveals a glued and screw construction, one of the old screws is missing (this doesn't affect the piece in any way, and mentioned purely for accuracy). As smart as they come in excellent polished condition, the footprint measuring 6 1/4" x 3 1/2" and standing 9 1/2" tall.
