SoldItem Reference: SA188612*Date of manufacture: 1890

Description

A stunning mirror made by top-notch London silversmith, William Comyns in a popular and very stylish fluted design almost resembling Peacock Feathers with an Art Nouveau flair. Standing on it's velvet covered easel stand, it can be packed flat for storage and travel. What makes this a particularly desirable example is the heart shaped original bevelled mirror making a very romantic choice. The silver has a full English hallmark for London 1898 and a separate maker's mark, W.C. for William Comyns. The piece stands 10 1/4" tall x 7 3/4" at widest points across the feet at the bottom and the mirror itself measuring 6" across x 7" (max) tall.
