Description

A real stunner, one of the most beautiful I have had in some time. This small Edwardian sterling silver box with its romantic heart shape has the most exquisite decoration to the lid surrounding the central dome. Standing on three cabriole legs, the box has a hinged lid which opens to reveal a gilded interior and a beautifully blue lining. The underside is where the full English hallmark can be found for Birmingham 1906. Beautiful quality and condition, measuring 2 1/8" x 2" x 1 1/2" tall.
