Description

Georgian Tea Table - Inlaid - c1800 This Georgian mahogany fold-over table is a pleasing example presented in good condition. The table has useful proportions and is therefore suitable for use as a hallway or console table, or will suit equally well as a lamp table. It is perfect for presenting tea, playing cards or intimate dining. Rising through elegantly tapered legs into a solid frieze and presenting lovely inlay to the top of the legs and fine stringing. The upper surfaces are presented in excellent order in both the standard and unfolded positions. To the rear there is one 'flying' leg which swings to support the lift over top. The table is solid in use and displays lovely colour. Overall this piece of furniture offers great scope and versatility. This antique is supplied ready for the home.
