Description

A lovely quality late Victorian silver double stamp box, the glazed top protecting the two original stamps beneath. The shaped box stands on it's original four spherical feet. One side is where the full hallmark can be found for London 1901. The makers initials are somewhat rubbed. The lid is sprung and when held open reveals a gilded interior and a leather finish to the interior of the lid. Excellent condition, measuring 2 3/8" x 1 3/8" x 1" tall.
