

SA191702

An Ancient Pot from Alexandria under Antique Glass Dome

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA191702*Date of manufacture:

Description

A small ancient pottery vessel, probably an oil or unguent pot, displayed under a glass dome with an ebonised base and bearing a label with the inscription; 'Egyptian pottery found on the site of the old town of Neappollis near Alexandria in the catacombs 1903.' A lovely object for the 'gentleman's cabinet.' 12cm high max.

Seller Details

Hand of Glory

Hand of Glory Antiques 34 Market Place Chippenham Wiltshire
SN15 3HP United Kingdom

Tel: 07867 305451 or 01249 447478

International Tel: +44 7867 305451 or +44 1249 447478

