Description

Antique Clock ~ Stunning Rococo Ormolu Boudoir Table Clock by A. D. Mougin ~ French - Circa 1870 ~ ~~ Excellent condition, fully overhauled ~~ A beautiful and excellent quality original antique boudoir clock modelled in the Rococo style in ormolu (finely gilded bronze / brass). It is of waisted keyhole shape, decorated with elaborate foliate scrolls, acanthus shoulders and 'C' scrolls. To the top is a large 'urn of plenty' with flowers and fruit and it stands on its original integral base with boldly scrolling feet. There are sound frets to all four sides backed with red velvet that help to lighten the design. The clock is modelled in the round and would therefore display very nicely on a table. The dial is cream enamel on copper with blue hour letters and a separate minute ring. The finely fretted brass hands are original as is the convex bevelled glass fitted to the Rococo bezel. The French movement is by A. D. Mougin and is of high quality as one would expect. It is in excellent clean and running condition having been fully overhauled by our clockmaker. Pendulum is original. It runs for 8 days and strikes the hours and halves on a bell. Click the video clip below t...
