Description

A really fabulous and highly collectible piece of Scottish Mauchline Ware, manufactured as an advertising or promotional piece for the Eastern Telegraph Company Limited, I believe the company responsible for laying the cables from the UK to the USA. The blade is covered both sides in a decoupaged world atlas and the handle being a calendar for the year 1896 (six months each side). Excellent condition with a good bright and shiny patina, measuring 13" in length. Item ID: 34546 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
