SoldItem Reference: SA194143*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

A fine example of an 18th century George III bookcase with a secretaire drawer. The upper section has 2 doors each with 10 pane astragal glazing, the 2 shelves are fixed. Amazingly this bookcase still has its original swan neck pediment which is superbly inlaid, most often these pediments are missing. The chest base has 3 long drawers and a pair of drawers behind which is the secretaire drawer with 8 small drawers and small compartments for letters, all are delicately inlaid. This is a superb example of 18th century craftsmanship and is in excellent condition. circa 1790 dimensions. width, 109cms depth, 55cms height, 250cms key present
