Description

Pair of Victorian Stools - Beaded Textile - c1850 This lovely pair of early Victorian footrests are a charming example and rare as a matched duo. With solid bases upon mini-turned legs these mahogany pieces show pleasing patina. The upper beaded quality textile displays well with stunning matching design to each stool. There is the expected wear to the outer edge of each wear the beads have been displaced. Overall a lovely pair of footstools which are both functional and look gorgeous. Very unusual as a pair and perfect for any collection.
