Description

A wonderful antique James I /Charles I Jacobean/Carolean oak sword chest oozing all the charm and character of the period; having a wonderful original dark rich patina. The photo simply doesn't do the piece justice to the wonderful colour and original chip carved front panel with simple parallel scratch moulding. This 17th century six plank small coffer bach kist blanket chest is also a very early example of seating or box settle, often placed aside a trestle table. This would make an ideal toy box, wine or drinks cupboard with the added benefit of an additional seat for three. The lift up lid opens to reveal a dry interior with a candle box. Circa 1630. Measures 50"w x 15"d x 21"h PLEASE SEE OUR OWN WEBSITE FOR FURTHER EXAMPLES ON SALE
