Description

Stunning Carved Oak Table - Folding Action - c1880 This carved oak table displays fine Dutch styling and is presented in excellent condition. A solid oak top with gorgeous hand carved detailing and octagonal form looks magnificent. Rising from angled quad-turned legs, into a stunning base with fine carved detailing and serpentine shaping throughout, the table stands solidly and robustly. If required for the purposes of storage the table promptly folds allowing the piece to flatten. Marine heritage or campaign related function seems likely. Overall this piece of furniture is in very good condition and the pleasing proportions make the table suitable for a variety of locations. It will look wonderful as a hall piece, lamp stand, side or display table, and has the character and quality to work with any decor. The quality oak displays very well and the table is a desirable collectible example. Delivered ready for the home.
