

SA197177

Moon Phase Longcase Clock Vick Stroud

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA197177*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

JOHN VICK, STROUD Circa 1825 A Gloucestershire Georgian oak moon-phase longcase clock. A slim case with a swan-neck hood pediment. Brass paterae and central brass finial. Brass capitals to the fluted side columns. An arched trunk door. An arched painted dial with gilt and floral corners. A lunar moon-phase tidal arch showing high water at Newnham Passage. A date and seconds dial. An 8-day duration mechanism striking the hours on a bell. John Leopold Vick of Stroud is recorded in Dowlers 'Gloucestershire Clock and Watchmakers' book as working 1818-1842. 7ft " / 214cms

Seller Details

Kembery Antique Clocks Ltd

Bristol United Kingdom

Tel: 0117 956 5281

International Tel: +44 117 956 5281