

SA197749

William Wilson The Strand c.1839

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA197749*Date of manufacture: 1800

Description

Dimensions: 11" tall / 7" wide / 4.5"wide A small sized rosewood bracket clock by William Wilson, Southampton Street, The Strand London. The fine quality single fusee 8 day movement with original anchor escapement, shaped plate movement with knurled pendulum restraint. The case with a carved gadrooned top surmounted with brass finial. The arched engraved silvered dial with roman numerals to the circumference, signed Wilson Strand to the dial centre, with cast brass reflector mask. The sides having brass bound arched glazed panels revealing the polished movement. The well figured rosewood case of typical William IV design. The clock stands on turned bun feet. A fine quality well proportioned clock of small proportions Contact us about this item...

Seller Details

FJ & RD Story Antique Clocks

The Old Vicarage Highthorn Road Kilnhurst South Yorkshire S64 5TX
United Kingdom

Tel: 07899 751 446 or 01709 589 736

International Tel: +44 7899 751 446 or +44 1709 589736