Description

Edwardian Stick & Umbrella Stand - Five Bay - c1910 A superb oak Edwardian stand with integral drip-tray to the base. Presented in very good condition and constructed to an excellent standard with quality barley twist uprights and serpentine frieze to the lower plinth. This Edwardian English classic design is hugely stylish and offers tremendous practicality. Standing upon turned feet this solid oak well kept item benefits from a lower drip tray base. The five section upper gives ample space to allow the separation of wet and dry brollies. The top is capped by an original ball turned finial at each corner. A wonderful piece of oak furniture that is in very good antique order throughout. It will make a lovely statement piece within any hallway, lobby, portico or cloakroom. Delivered ready for the home.
