

SA198226

Antique Georgian Silver Sugar Tongs Philip Batchelor circa 1770

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA198226*Date of manufacture: 1750

Description

A Pair of Georgian Silver Sugar Tongs by Philip Batchelor, circa 1770, hand worked and repousse decorated with acorns, shell shaped nips and engraved with the letter M. Philip Batchelor was a London silversmith registered as 'a small worker' in 1770. Very little is known about him however there is some reference to him working as a buckle maker in Turnstile Row, Lincoln's Inn Fields in 1773. Bearing lion passant silver standard and makers mark P•B. 5.5" long.

Seller Details

Hand of Glory

Hand of Glory Antiques 34 Market Place Chippenham Wiltshire
SN15 3HP United Kingdom

Tel: 07867 305451 or 01249 447478

International Tel: +44 7867 305451 or +44 1249 447478