Sold

Item Reference: SA201892

Date of manufacture: 1880

Description

A Victorian Reversible Decoupage Scrap Screen, circa 1880. The three arch-topped panels extensively covered in scraps on both sides (more commonly these screens have simpler decoration to the reverse side). 190cm high, each panel 53cm wide. Condition is good for a screen of this type; there are no holes or missing areas of decoration but there are various dints, scratches and edge-wear commensurate with age. Please ask for any further photographs.
