Description

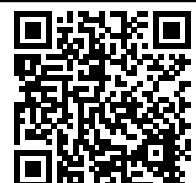

A really nice Victorian napkin ring made from a good gauge of English sterling silver, with a raised border to top and bottom framing the beautiful engraved panel running around the ring. The front has a shield-shaped vacant cartouche for your silversmith to engrave should you wish. The hallmark is for Birmingham 1896. The makers initials JW into two circles, for the silversmith, J. Wilmot. Excellent condition, measuring 1 5/8" in diameter x 1" thick and weighing 0.78 Troy Ounce or 24.3 Grams. Item ID: 34631 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
