Description

A charming and really unusual Sovereign Case, made from English Sterling Silver. The case has a ball and ring attached, to either attach to a fob and chain or perhaps a Chatelaine. It would make an interesting piece of jewelry, on a silver chain and hung around the neck. The back is beautifully engraved surrounding a central cartouche. There is a slot at the side where the little sovereigns would have been placed, kept in place with the sprung interior. There is a full hallmark for Birmingham 1904, making this an Edwardian gem, the makers initials S&B are also present. Excellent condition measuring just shy of 1" x 1" (1 3/4" including ring).
