Description

A lovely (and very romantic) Edwardian sterling silver vesta, in the shape of a heart, with engraving on both sides. The lid is sprung and snaps firmly shut, all as it should be. One side has a strike where the (non-safety) matches would have been struck. This on a long silver chain would look charming worn. The silver is hallmarked for Birmingham 1907; the initials, S M L are present for the well renowned silversmith, Samuel M Levi. Excellent condition, measuring 1 3/4" x 1 1/2" (excluding ring) and weighing 15.2 Grams or 0.49 Troy Ounce. Item ID: 34629 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
