Description

A very handsome box, perfect for either a lady or gentleman dating to the mid-nineteenth century. Made from exotic (and expensive) Rosewood, the box is bound with brass edging, a beautiful contrast to warm wood. The lid is inset with a shield shaped cartouche with a banner below; there is a matching escutcheon to the front housing the working tasseled key. The inside of the box has been re-lined in a hand-marbled paper, creating a fresh clean finish to store whatever it is you wish, from larger pieces of Jewelry to hairbrushes, bottles, papers or photographs. There is a push button to the back which once pressed releases the sprung drawer below revealing a fully fitted jewelry drawer with a top full-width ring section to accommodate several rings. Excellent condition, measuring 12" x 9" x 7 1/2". Item ID: 34589 FREE Worldwide Registered Airmail Directly From London, England
