Description

Corner Wardrobe Mirror Door Hall Cloak Cabinet - English Edwardian - c1910 This excellent mahogany Corner Wardrobe is in fine order and benefits from original lock and key. The cabinet is designed to fit into a corner and therefore ideal as a free standing piece in any room where superb storage is required. Crafted from quality mahogany the piece displays classic Edwardian simple lines and good proportion. To the top there is an attractive wide crown moulding and the piece presents a simple plinth at the floor. A mirrored door, with bevel edge plate, opens to reveal a fabric lined interior. The fittings for hanging include perimeter hooks, double ceiling hooks and a central brass rail. The piece offers generous storage and will accommodate many hangers and items. This stylish and very practical piece is in excellent solid order. The quality of the construction of the piece is clear to see. Both internally & externally the cabinet is clean and very well presented.
