Description

A stunning quality 19th century ebonised and cut brass inlaid pier cabinet. This fine example having a rectangular top with a brass galleried back above the shaped moulded frieze with decorative brass boulle inlay. The antique Pier Cabinet has beautifully cast gilt ormolu decoration with a glass fronted door and glass panelled sides. The interior still retains its original red velvet with the whole piece being in standing on a shaped bracket plinth. This quality pier cabinet will stand out in any house making it the talking piece of the room.
