Description

A stunning and most unusual bowl or dish, very usable for all sorts of things, and a really decorative piece to enjoy. The base is made from glass, beautifully cut all around, then mounted with this stunning pierced or reticulated rim made from silverplate. The shaped border has a series of embossed and pierced floral vignettes, stylized and very Art Nouveau. Dating to the late Victorian or early Edwardian era, around 1900, the piece remains in excellent condition. Including the rim, it measures 12" x 8 3/4", the central glass bowl measures 8 1/4" x 5".
