Price

SoldItem Reference: SA203837*Date of manufacture: 1910

Description

A brass Art Deco chandelier with three lights on the outside and a central light within a glass bowl shade. The brass isn't as bright as appears in the last photograph, we lightened the images so the designs on the shades could be seen in detail. The light and all four shades are in perfect condition and it was rewired recently for the UK market. There is an original ceiling rose from which three long brass fittings hold up the frame of the chandelier. The measurements are: 68cm in length and 72cm at the widest point.
