Description

A Very Large Victorian Carved Oak and Leather Arm chair. This is a very large arm chair, it had a nicely carved high throne back which, like the seat and arms are upholstered in heavy quality tan hide with brass stud work. The chair has broad arms with barley twist supports which are elegantly carved with scrolls. The seat has a carved edge and legs with barley twist stretchers. The chair is in very good condition, no wobbles worm or tears in the leather. The chair back is 51" high, the front is 29" wide, 24" deep and the seat is 18" high.
