Description

Pair of Large Candelabra - W&H Stamped - c1900 A desirable pair of silver plated candelabra flutes standing 15" tall and with a very generous mouth allowing for large candles to be placed within. They display a genuine patina with the polishing process over the years having worn away the plating revealing the brass throughout much of the items. Presented in very good condition these are free of dents, dings or other damage and would therefore be ideal for re-plating. This stylish duo look splendid with pie-crust edging and raised form to the body. They are stamped W&H. Overall a lovely addition to any table setting or simply as a display set.
