Description

I love this rug with its natural camel-hair field and stylised 'tree-of-life' rising from the underworld, the trunk in the earthly world and at the top, the world of the spirit - symbolically representing the three-level universe to the nomads. Symmetrically knotted, this rug belongs to the Bahluli tribe of Baluch and made in the region of south-east Persia around 1870-1880. Size: 1.17m x 0.68m (3' 10" x 2' 3").

Internal Ref: BM648
